Lawyers for Woman Accused At As of Murder Pave Way for "Unwritten Law" Plea.

OPELOUSAS, La., Oct. 20 -Accused of slaving her neighbor's son-a scion of the old Garland family of St. Landry Parish-Mrs. Zee Runge McRee took the witness stand to-day in her own defense. It was expected she would explain she killed young Allan Geriand "in defense of her honor," and that the defense at this point will unlimber its "unwritten law" battery. Up to this point in the trial the State has indicated it will attempt to how Mrs. McRee had a motive deeper than that of "defense of honor" in the killing of the young Tulane student.
Mrs. McRee said she got the revolver with which she killed young Garland "You say Allan was advancing or you when you fired?" asked the prose-
